Navigate

Like a compass
Like a map
Guiding me, guiding us

Place to place
Town to town
Country to country
Village to village

Settling our roots with every conversation and interaction.
Learning old age stories and fitting in with tradition.

Absorbing each welcome
Absorbing each greeting
Honouring each custom
Respecting each individual

Like a compass
Like a map
Defining me
Defining you

Jumping between place to place,
with the feeling of everlasting grace.

In this life and in the next.
Navigate your surroundings
Navigate your mind
Navigate your soul
Be brave and always be bold.
Your place is wherever you call your own.
