Safe Places

All around was bright and cheerful.

As if the sun rose amidst the darkness of pool.

I ran across thy light with my heart full of joy.

Spread my arms all around like a young bird ready to fly.

Yes Yes this is my world full of smiles and shine

Its a feeling truly divine.

Oh my king of the kings wherever you reside

The place becomes beautiful like a bride.

You healed my heart whenever it shattered

Lifted me up and hugged me in your arms to gather

I close my eyes and find myself safe and thank you for each breathe you gave

Lift me up oh my Lord

lift me to your grace , where my life will be embraced theres no other PLACE no other PLACE.....
