Supporting Coventry City of Culture 2021

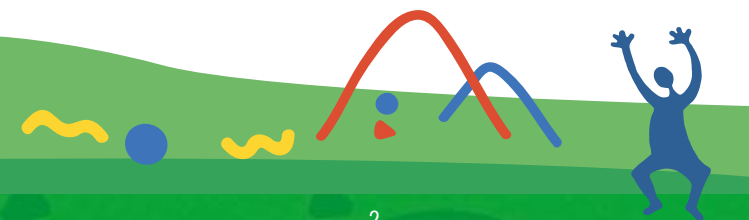

Welcome

2019 marks the 25th Anniversary of Positive Images Festival, which grew out of a one day multicultural book fair at the Methodist Central Hall in May 1994 and in the intervening years has grown to a three week festival celebrating the arts and heritage of the city. Not only does Positive Images celebrate the contribution of the city's minority communities but as it is now a Diversity Festival we proudly cover all other minorities from gender to disability. So we link with our friends at Coventry Pride and support all issues whether physical or mental disability as well as those in the refugee communities as well as new migrants to the city.

This year we look forward to working towards the City of Culture 2021 and as a part of this development we are running a programme of seven workshops sessions, each consisting of three workshops with practitioners from at least two different genres. So from May to September we cover areas such as poetry, crafts and mindfulness, writing and photography and environment and nature and much more. This will culminate in a celebratory event at the Albany Theatre on September 14th.

Positive Images would not happen without its volunteers nor without the fantastic contributions made by communities and community groups in the city. We hold the launch and the craft and food fair in Broadgate on 15th June, the Community Information Fair again in Broadgate on 3rd July and a new venture this year, a celebratory weekend at Fargo Village over the weekend 13th to 14th July. This year we hope to involve over 100 communities and organisations, hundreds of artists and we confidently expect to break the 2018 record of 35,000 audience members and participants.

We need to thank our volunteers especially those from our two universities as well as individual volunteers and our friends from Sahyadri Friends Group. Yet again we will be working closely with WATCH and Hillzfm, the Canley Stakeholders Group, the Coventry Welcomes Festival and the Spon Spun Festival amongst others. Of course dozens of community organisations and the Coventry Library Service provide tremendous support through the events and activities they put on as well as the venue they make available. Also making a vital and significant contribution this year are the members of the newly formed Festival Executive. Thank you to everyone.

Positive Images is a FREE festival apart from a few events which are highlighted in this year's programme. Funding this year comes from City of Culture 2021 without which the Workshop Programme would not be possible. So we invite you to come along to the Launch of the Festival in Broadgate on Saturday 15th June and hear from the Lord Mayor of Coventry and Lady Godiva in the form of Pru Porretta. Please enjoy this year's outstanding programme of events, activities, exhibitions and artistic performances, all covered in this year's Festival brochure and fuller details available on the Festival website www.positiveimagesfestival.co.uk
