Human Rights

Understanding

If Human Rights means being human
I totally agree
Black white mixed-race or even blue
They're all the same to me.

If we look at good instead of bad
We find a friend or two
And finish up with lots of haves
Instead of loads of me me too.

So, let's all think again
About what really matters
Love, understanding, listening, pain
And hope all WILL get better.
