

Positive Images Festival calling...

Welcome to your June update

Positive Images Festival has collaborated with the City of Culture Trust for an online Coventry Welcomes Festival (formerly called Refugee Week). The national Refugee Week takes place in June every year and celebrates the contribution of refugees to the United Kingdom and fosters better understanding between communities. The dates of the 2020 Coventry Welcomes Festival are 15 – 20 June. A number of organisations attended zoom meetings and have organised exciting events. Positive Images Festival has organised a competition with a prize to win, a poetry workshop and an artists showcase. For details of all events visit www.positiveimagesfestival.co.uk or www.coventrywelcomes.co.uk

And here is news from our partner organisations...

WEA has arranged two free online courses. For more details visit www.wea.org.uk

Herbert Art Gallery & Museum and Coventry Transport Museum are enabling people to explore their collections from the comfort of their own home. To receive their updates email info@culturecoventry.com

Chat Central held its virtual Big Lunch on Friday 5th June. Weekly activities continue.

Cook & Eat Well continues to produce its monthly newsletter and includes some wonderful recipes.

CAIF's Bulletin 155 contains information about what's on.

Coventry Libraries and Information Service's latest newsletter highlights activities taking place citywide.

*Despite being closed, The Tin Music & Arts has been busy working on projects and with partners on digital/remote programmes.

*Award-winning Giving Time And Solutions Ltd has issued its June e-newsletter, containing useful tips.

Did you know?

5th June is Environment Day and National British Fish & Chips Day.

21st June is Father's Day.

26th June 2020 is the 75th anniversary of the signing of UN Charter.

For your information/action:

*The Coventry Cambrian Society, Coventry's Welsh Society, is looking for new members. Its aim is to promote interest in Welsh culture. Meetings are held in English and are open to all. Activities include talks, musical and social evenings, St David's Dinner and an annual outing to somewhere in Wales.

www.coventrycambrian.co.uk/

*Set up in 1993, the Coventry Irish Society provides a service to all generations of the Irish community in Coventry and surrounding areas.

www.coventryirishsociety.com

Coventry Police Partnerships Team requests people to sign up to its free messaging service. Messages can be sent in over 50 different languages. Anyone who signs up will receive messages from the local policing team, telling them what is happening in the community. Visit www.wmnow.co.uk/

EnV (Coventry) CIC – Coventry Ambassador Volunteer Programme has been awarded the Queen's Award for Voluntary Service.