

- Sharing Walls By Rob Gibbs

Love thy neighbour as we know,
The bible stated long ago,
To have good neighbours nearby,
Is like an angel from the sky.

In times of trouble they are there,
To lend support and show they care,
Displaying much consideration,
Avoids a lot of consternation.

Good morning and a friendly smile,
Stop and chat for a while,
If they misplace their front door key,
Invite them in for scones and tea.

When they go on holiday,
Check all is well anyway,
Give help to others and it's true,
They will probably do the same for you.

If they're ill it's not too hard,

To send a thoughtful get well card,
Even gestures that seem small,
Are worth much more than none at all.

It's fine to take but also give,
That world's a better place to live,
Let's all thank and also treasure,
The folk next door who give us pleasure.
