

Coventry Peace Festival 2021

Free Positive Images Poetry Competition

FAITH, HOPE AND LOVE

These are universal themes, which have been needed more than ever during the past two years. The theme can be interpreted in any way, for example, faith does not need to be referred to in a religious sense (although it could be if that's the poem you want to write!).

Positive Images Festival are looking forward to bringing a bit of positivity into the world with this booklet of poems so please keep this in mind when submitting your poems.

Our judges are looking for an original take on the theme, don't try and cover everything in one poem - be specific and avoid clichés. The quality of poems increases each year so we are really looking forward to reading your poetic offerings again this year. The competition is free to enter and is open to everyone over 16 years of age.

The competition runs from 1st October to the 31st October.

Entries must be emailed to:

positiveimagesfest@yahoo.com along with your full name, your name as you would like it to appear in print (if this is different to your full name), address, email address and telephone number.

Winners will be announced at a celebratory event on the 20th November 2021. The event will be held at Methodist Central Hall, Coventry City Centre. Five prizes will be awarded - one for first place, two runners up and two highly commended. We will also be producing a booklet and the judges will select poems to appear alongside the winners.

By entering your poem into this competition, you are agreeing for your poem to be published on the Positive Images Festival website, social media pages and in the printed booklet. You may enter up to three poems of no more than 40 lines each.
