

FAITH By Simon Harrison

Faith for so many brings joy

Others it brings pain

My car, my wife, religion, my skill

So many holes my faith helps me fill

Without faith so many are lost

Twisting, turning and looking to the sky

Wondering will I live or will I die

Wake up smiling or begin to cry

It's amazing how many hold onto faith

Difference of opinion bringing love or hate

Complicated and difficult to anticipate

Was it the right decision or was fate

It helps to tolerate changes that occur

Different ideas that others prefer

Some are weak some are strong

Because we can't see doesn't mean faith is wrong

One love the beautiful Bob Marley song

Amazing lyrics that keep us together as one

ONE LOVE
