

Miracles

By Chris Burleigh

Miracles really can happen and sometimes when you least expect, underground church, candlelit grotto real inner transformation felt, every child with their able helpers, each year, more than fifty years, nobody could thank enough your tireless devotion.
Cures are not sought, but friends are found, a few days lifted above routines, relief for loving carers, reflection on life's cares, old memories revived, and new ones made, light procession
love expression.
Bent and bound by your ninety years Even you now have your frame and chair.
Miracles really happen, in inexplicable ways.
