

GET UP AND MOVE ON.

After all life have thrown you down,

Promises betrayed,

Hope shattered,

Goal not met,

Desires not achieved,

Though, you might fall down,

People might betray you,

Promise, make false promises,

Life matter, situations, circumstances might drag on the ground,

Storm came your way,

Sand dust covered your sight,

Well, the crucial fact you must know is,

the vision ain't lost,

As long as the vision carrier is still living,

there's still hope, there's still a future,

When life pull you down you rise back,

When storms comes your way,

you make stand known,

When sand dust comes to blind you from seeing the vision, you maintain the focus,

You know the vision,

You understand the vision,

The vision is in you,

You're the vision!

Get up and move on!
