

Where's the Deal?

by Kitty O'Shea

Down the streets the protest raged Defiant skies, roaring seas joined the rampage,

Barriers crumbled, houses pelted.

- Water, water unrelenting

Retaliating, demonstrating

Has lost it's course, misdirected.

Startled humans stand, stare,

Await rescue, watch homes slip away.

Why, why? the wretched cries

A life source taking umbrage

A friend turns foe defies.

Have we missed, overlooked

Regarded all our own?

Cutting down, laying low

Steering, clearing off nature's way

To build a towering legoland

Without flourish, growth,

Without green, green land.
